

November 24, 2008

Newsmakers

Maid Brigade Hires General Manager

Maid Brigade, a company committed to providing environmentally-friendly home cleaning services throughout Westchester, Putnam, Rockland and Fairfield counties, announced that it has hired Eddie Cordero as General Manager.

As General Manager, Cordero is responsible for personnel hiring, training and management to ensure that Maid Brigade provides the highest level of quality housecleaning and meets or exceeds client expectations. He will also utilize his knowledge of ISO 140001 certification, which sets the standards for environmental management systems.

Prior to joining Maid Brigade, Cordero was Facilities Manager at the non-profit Per Scholas, Inc., which provides low-income families a computer and computer training at low or no cost. As Facilities Manager, he analyzed office operations and procedures and developed ways to improve workflow efficiencies. Additionally, he participated in planning personnel safety and plant protection activities.

“Eddie’s experience in staff development, streamlining operations and instituting new policies and procedures will lend itself nicely to our company’s short- and long-term growth objectives,” said Robin Murphy, president of Maid Brigade. “I am very pleased to welcome him to our team.”

Cordero holds a degree in real estate from St. Johns University, New York. He lives in The Bronx with his wife.

For additional information, contact Maid Brigade at 914.741.0552 or at www.westchestercounty.maidbrigade.com