Maid Brigade of West Chester Wins Maid Brigade “Blue Angel” Award

WEST CHESTER, Pa.—The Denlinger family, owners of Maid Brigade of West Chester, were honored with the Maid Brigade “Blue Angel” award in recognition of the best overall performance in the company’s territory size along with its high growth, customer satisfaction, and low employee turnover rates. The award was presented at the house cleaning franchisor’s annual convention held on July 20 in New Orleans.

Maid Brigade of West Chester has provided eco-friendly house cleaning service to its customers since 1991. In addition to being recognized with the Blue Angel Award this year, the Denlingers’ Maid Brigade franchise has repeatedly been honored for excellence by its franchisor including receiving the Maid Brigade Top Gun award for excellence in 2005, 2007, 2008, 2009, and 2012 and the Maid Brigade Franchisee of the Year award in 1997.

“These are the people you should exemplify if you want to have a successful franchise business,” says Bart Puett, president of Maid Brigade. “If you run your business like the Denlingers, you are guaranteed financial success.”

Maid Brigade of West Chester offers house cleaning services to Pennsylvania and Delaware residents of Avondale, Berwyn, Broomall, Chadds Ford, Chester Springs, Coatesville, Devon, Downingtown, Exton, Glen Mills, Glenmoore, Kennett Square, Landenberg, Malvern, Media, Newtown Square, Paoli, Phoenixville, Thornton, Wayne, West Chester, West Grove, and Wilmington.

“The success we’ve had is a direct result of our team’s attention to quality and detail in every customer home cleaning,” says George Denlinger. “This a family business. Our team and our community are a part of our family.”
